The Academy Street story â€œ making the cultural heritage accessible: Academy Street is an integral part of the historic Old Town. It originally formed the defensive North East edge, but later became the workshop or industrial area helped by the railway bringing growth and development to the area and Inverness as a whole.

About â€œ Academy Street

Work is underway in partnership with Highlife Highland to help increase understanding of the heritage of Academy Street. There will be lots of opportunities to engage in the heritage of the Old Town, through the planned programme of events. These events are working towards the development of a digital heritage trail for Academy Street.
